

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

---

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

Docket No: 19-CR-00243-WMS-1

STATEMENT WITH RESPECT TO SENTENCING FACTORS

TORIN J. FINVER,

Defendant.

---

BARRY NELSON COVERT, ESQ., being duly sworn, deposes and says:

I represent the Defendant Torin J. Finver. I make this affirmation in accordance with the requirements of Section 6A1.2 of the Sentencing Guidelines, “Statement of Defendant with Respect to Sentencing Factors,” as promulgated by the United States Sentencing Commission. I have reviewed the Presentence Report and it appears to be accurate, based on what I know of Dr. Finver and his case. The Defendant offers the following corrections to the filed Pre-Sentence Report: (1) on page 12, the name of Dr. Finver’s step-father should be spelled “Morten,” rather than “Mortin”; (2) on page 13, the name of Dr. Finver’s ex-wife should be spelled “Rachael Hutchinson” rather than “Rachel Hutcherson”; and (3) on page 15, Dr. Finver denies having used Phencyclidine (PCP).

By way of background, Dr. Finver was born in Chisholm, Minnesota on July 31, 1964 to Alan Cianni and Rhona Bittle. Dr. Finver earned his medical degree at Albany Medical School, pursuing a residency in internal medicine at Albany Medical Center. He eventually found a job in private practice at Vassar Medical Center in Poughkeepsie, New York, and later began working in the addiction recovery field in Buffalo, New York. He hopes to one day overhaul the New York

State addiction recovery system so that recovering addicts can find a better path to recovery. Dr. Finver has one sister, Hillary Landau, age fifty-three, who lives in Briarcliff Manor, New York. He also has a sixteen-year-old daughter, Hollace, who lives with Dr. Finver's ex-wife, Rachael Hutchinson.
